WHY I AM FOR WILSON
 By Dr. Harry A. Garfield
 President of Williams College and Son of the Former Republican President of the United States.

I have decided to support Mr. Wilson. His character as a man, his sympathetic understanding of the problems of the day, his record in office, his unusual ability, prominently displayed in meeting and dealing with the three great emergencies of his administration, and the importance of maintaining an uninterrupted policy at this juncture in world affairs lead me to believe that the best interests of our country will be served in keeping the present Administration and its party in office for the present.

I have therefore enrolled myself with the League of Independent Voters of Massachusetts.

THE UNITED STATES MUST BE SUPREME.
 After the passing of all these weary weeks, after waiting until almost the last moment, Mr. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency of this country, evidently seeing the fallacy of remaining longer in statu quo, comes out in a statement, according to today's telegraphic reports of a speech delivered by that gentleman yesterday, which contained as its gist a statement of the simple fact that with every loyal American citizen, America should be first.

Great "guns." Has it taken the hirsute bearer of the standard Republicanism all these weeks and months to find that none but a really loyal American may hope to be chosen by Americans to represent, as chief executive, Americans?

Or has he found that his past toyings with the "hyphenated vote" are losing him more true American votes than may be gained from the few semi-disloyal?

There is such a thing as a "hyphenated American." And no matter where a man's father may have been born—no matter where the man himself may have been born; no matter whether he may be a native of this country, born of naturalized parents, or be himself alien born but a citizen by naturalization, if he has a loyal heart, if he is true to the interests of the Stars and Stripes, there is and there can be no such thing as a hyphen in his makeup.

Whether born of native American parents, or of foreign born parents; whether born upon the broad, sweeping prairies of the west, the hill-wrinkled countries of the east; whether born beneath the silken folds of the star spangled banner, beneath the "Lilies of France," beneath the "Cross of St. George," beneath the emerald token of old Erin, beneath the colors of the German empire, just as soon as the true man acknowledges his allegiance to the great America he becomes absolutely, solely and above all else—American.

From our viewpoint, Mr. Hughes must have been either very "slow of comprehension," or else he has been attempting to play cheap politics in trying up to this late day to court favor with the few who lean toward the "Fatherland" and would let other oaths of allegiance which they have taken to this country count as naught.

It is a matter of fact that among the most loyal Americans may be counted the so-called German-Americans. When the call to arms echoed and re-echoed from coast to coast in this country almost three-quarters of a century ago those of German birth, or of German parentage, were the first to respond. Shouting their allegiance to the "starry banner," they went down in conflict by tens of thousands, giving their hearts' blood for this country, the country of their adoption, in order, as they saw it, that the country might be saved, might remain for all time as a unit, as an undivided nation.

Is it, therefore, possible that Mr. Hughes has spent all this time which has elapsed since the Chicago convention in finding out that there is no such thing as a "hyphenated American"? Is it possible that he is just now learning that the German-Americans—so-called—of today are the sons of the German-Americans of almost a hundred years ago, the German-Americans who marched with Siegel and with Thomas; with Sherman and with Grant; marched to battle and to death for the country of their own or of their fathers' adoption?

If such is the case, and it seems that it is, then Mr. Hughes, during the time which has elapsed since the Republican convention nominated him, has proven himself to be the most UNAMERICAN of all.

Movie Picture Producer for Wilson. New York, Oct. 24.—Thomas H. Ince, producer of the famous Triangle moving picture films, who added a special feature to his photo-drama, "Civilization," to bring the Wilson argument home to his audiences, has sent to the Woodrow Wilson Independent League the following statement:

"I will vote for Woodrow Wilson because he is saving civilization by keeping us at peace. He has maintained peace with honor.

"Civil and revolutionary warfare has solved great problems but millions of quiet-thinking courageous people are convinced that international warfare settles absolutely nothing.

"I agree with the president that it is useless to fight until we have something really worth while fighting for. To talk of being held in contempt by all the world because we have proceeded as we have is silly and absurd. 'Watchful waiting' is splendid Christianity, and a reunited North and South America is the fruition of President Wilson's foreign policy. Four more years of Wilson will so cement that friendship that it will be everlasting.

"Woodrow Wilson will get history's verdict on his foreign policy alone. Even his enemies by their failure to criticize his international policies admit his enviable position in history in that regard. There are enough thinking unprejudiced people to give him a national vote of confidence at this time."

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

"Kid" Berryhill Issues Challenge.

"Uncle Berry," a familiar figure on the streets of the city, who is now 74 years of age and just beginning to enjoy youth, takes a keen interest in athletics. He has had the gloves on with a lot of old timers when there were some real boxers in the country and has yet to be returned second best in any of his bouts. He is a regular attendant at the Ardmore athletic club shows and has issued a challenge to any man in the state of his years to get the pillows on and take each other's measure. It is not expected that the bout would be a whirlwind affair, but the old timer has several tricks up his sleeve that it would be well for the modern dancing masters to emulate, provided "Uncle Berry" will put them next to the same.
